Volume 1 Autumn 1992

Free to members £2.50 if sold

This volume of articles and snippets results from pieces of historical research by members of the Sutton Coldfield Local History Research Group. Much more research is in progress or in various stages of completion, this publication being designed to inform members of each other's work in the first instance, but as further issues are produced the "Proceedings" will eventually form a comprehensive collection of the group's work.
