SUTTON COLDFIELD REGISTER OF ELECTORS, BURGESS ROLLS AND VOTERS REGISTER 1851-1938

The first available information, providing details of the names of people living in the town of Sutton Coldfield, can be found in the Sutton Coldfield Directory of 1830, see PART 8 (Sutton Coldfield Directories).

A Register of Electors then became available in 1851. Subsequently, there was a large gap before the Burgess Rolls could be viewed, which commenced in the year 1886. With two exceptions, these continued until the outbreak of the First World War in 1914. For some reason, between the years 1918 and 1919, they were called the Sutton Coldfield Voters Register. From 1920 onwards, they reverted back to the title of Register of Electors.

The Register of Electors for Sutton Coldfield can be found in the Archives Section of Sutton Coldfield Library. These books list individuals residing in Church Hill, Coleshill Street and Mill Street. They are complete, from 1920 until 1938/39, when this research ends.

The Burgess Rolls for Sutton Coldfield can be found in the Local Studies Section of Sutton Coldfield Library and provide similar information. They are also virtually complete from 1886 until 1914-15, with the exception of the years 1888 and 1889.

Church Hill, Coleshill Street and Mill Street all fall within the 'Trinity Ward' of Sutton Coldfield.

Useful 'aide memoires', when researching names in the various lists, is to bear in mind that Church Hill only had numbering on the left hand side of the street, beginning at No. 1 at the junction with Mill Street and finishing at No. 8 nearest to Holy Trinity Parish Church.

Coleshill Street had odd numbers on the left hand side of the street, looking west from the direction of High Street and even numbers on the right hand side

Mill Street had odd house numbers on the left hand side of the street, looking south from the direction of High Street, and even numbers on the right hand side.

REGISTER OF ELECTORS 1851-52

NOTE: The first available Register of Electors lists the people of the town of Sutton Coldfield, but is lacking in detailed information. Only occasionally is a street named, making it difficult to pin point the exact location of the inhabitants.
