SUTTON COLDFIELD DIRECTORIES (REF: SH06 SUT)

Only a limited number of Directories are available to examine in the Local Studies Section of Sutton Coldfield Library, which results in quite large periods that are not covered.

A list of the years available to view and which have been used in this research is, as follows:-

1830
1835	Pigot's Directory.
1850	The Sutton Coldfield Directory and the History, Gazetteer & Directory of Warwickshire (Ref: SH06 WAR) issued by Francis White & Company are both available for this particular year.
1854
1866
1868
1872
1874
1875-77
1880
1888
1892
1898	'The Warden' dated December 1898.
1900
1901-02
1908

1916
1924	Kelly's Directory.
1925-26	Cope's Directory.
1926-27
1928	Aubrey's Directory.
1930
1931
1932
1936

SUTTON COLDFIELD DIRECTORIES (Continued)

1830

This Directory offers relatively few clues for the area around Coleshill Street, Mill Street and Church Hill, as only names are provided. Addresses are limited to areas such as Maney, Langley, Little Sutton etc.

1835

Pigot's Directory mentions Charles Brentnall as being the Overseer of the Workhouse in Mill Street.

Alice Alldridge is noted as being connected with the 'Old Sun' Inn in Coleshill Street. There is no mention of the 'Royal Oak'.

1850

This Directory, compiled by Francis White & Company, provides more information than before and includes street names and individual occupants, together with their trades.
